Instrument (ENI) with EUR 70 million in commitment appropriations in order to fund actions linked to the Central Mediterranean migratory route through the North Africa window of the EU Trust Fund for Africa (EUR 28 million) and to fulfil part of the Union pledge made at the 24-25 April 2018 Brussels II conference “Supporting the future of Syria and the region” (EUR 42 million, which are to be transferred to the EU Regional Trust Fund in Response to the Syrian Crisis (the ‘Madad’ Fund));

- E. whereas the Commission has proposed to reinforce Humanitarian Aid with EUR 35 million in payment appropriations to meet needs triggered by the EUR 124,8 million reinforcements at the end of 2017 which did not include payment appropriations;
  - F. whereas the Commission has also proposed to reinforce the establishment plan of the innovation and Networks Executive Agency (INEA) in the context of the WiFi4EU initiative, by adding one post of temporary agent at grade AD7; whereas this amendment can be financed within the Agency’s budget for this year;
1. Takes note of Draft amending budget No 5/2018 as submitted by the Commission, which is devoted to cancelling, both in commitment and payment appropriations, the reserve related to Turkey from the IPA II, to reinforcing of the ENI in commitment appropriations and of Humanitarian Aid in payments appropriations, and to reinforcing the establishment plan of the INEA in the context of the WiFi4EU initiative;
  2. Expresses its concern at the continuing deterioration in fundamental rights and freedoms and the rule of law in Turkey and Turkey’s further drifting away from European values;
  3. Reiterates that any decision related to IPA II funding in Turkey should not be made to the detriment of Union support to Turkish civil society, which should be further increased;
  4. Insists on the need to apply workable solutions along the Central Mediterranean migratory route, in cooperation with relevant international, national or regional authorities, and fully respecting international human rights standards with regard to the treatment of migrants;
  5. Approves the Council position on Draft amending budget No 5/2018;
  6. Instructs its President to declare that Amending budget No 5/2018 has been definitively adopted and arrange for its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union;
  7. Instructs its President to forward this resolution to the Council, the Commission, the other institutions and bodies concerned and the national parliaments.
